

Curtis R. Frasier

General Counsel, Upstream Americas

Head of Legal for Shell USA

Shell Oil Company

Curtis Frasier is the Executive Vice President and General Counsel of Royal Dutch Shell's Upstream Americas business and Head of Legal for Shell in the USA.

Since joining Shell Oil Company in 1982, Curtis has held a number of positions within Shell's Legal Organization in Houston, London and The Hague, including serving as Secretary to the Royal Dutch Shell Committee of Managing Directors and the joint Conference of the Boards of Royal Dutch Petroleum and The Shell Transport and Trading Company and later as General Counsel of Shell's global Exploration & Production business.

Curtis has also led a number of business units within Shell, serving as a Vice President of Tejas Gas Corporation, Sr. Vice President of Coral Energy, President of Shell Midstream Enterprises and President of Shell US Gas & Power. He has also served as a Director of Shell Oil Company, Shell Petroleum Inc. and Enterprise Products Partners LP (NYSE: EPD).

Outside of Shell, Curtis is currently a member of the Law Committee of the American Petroleum Institute, an Advisory Board member of the Institute for Energy Law, a member of the General Counsel Forum, a Director of the Global Institute of Sustainability and an Advisory Director of Houston Achievement Place.

Curtis received his BA from Arizona State University in 1977 and his Juris Doctor from the University of Tulsa in 1982.

Curtis and his wife Pamela (also a Texas lawyer, now retired) live in The Woodlands, Texas.