Forward Focus MBA program

Fall 2017 Full-time MBA incoming class

Arizona State University emphasizes broad access to higher education. The Forward Focus MBA curriculum and scholarship are extensions of that goal, impacting outstanding students from across the country and around the world who may not have otherwise been considering an MBA.

- 109 students enrolled
- 634 total applicants
- 24% of applicants admitted
- 39% female students
- 34% international students
- 23 countries represented
- 682 average GMAT score
- 3.51 average undergraduate GPA
- 29 years of age, on average
- 5.5 years average work experience

Data based on incoming 2017 Full-time MBA class profile; official data available 21 days after program start.

Global representation

Canada, Chile, China, Colombia, India, Indonesia, Israel, Jamaica, Lithuania, Mexico, Morocco, Nicaragua, Nigeria, Pakistan, Philippines, Romania, Spain, Taiwan, Togo, Turkey, Uzbekistan, Vietnam, Zimbabwe

Undergraduate major

- 27% Business
- 27% Engineering
- 14% Social sciences
- 13% Science/math
- 11% Humanities
- 7% Economics
- 1% Other

Residency

- 39% Southwest
- 32% International
- 11% West
- 8% Midwest
- 6% Northeast
- 3% Mid-Atlantic
- 1% South

WPC-10: 10/2017

W. P. Carey School of Business
wpcareymasters@asu.edu
wpcarey.asu.edu/forwardfocus