

Larry Seay

Retired

Larry W. Seay has served as chief financial officer and secretary of Meritage Homes Corporation from 1996 until his retirement in 2016. Seay was instrumental in taking Meritage public in 1996 and structured the acquisition of nine homebuilders since that time.

Prior to joining Meritage, he served as chief financial officer and treasurer of two other publicly-traded homebuilders and also was an audit manager with Deloitte & Touche.

Seay received B.S. degrees in finance and accounting and an M.B.A. from Arizona State University in 1977, 1978, and 1979 respectively. Seay is a certified public accountant and is active in many professional organizations including the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Arizona Society of Certified Public Accountants, the Financial Executives Institute, and the Arizona Business Leadership. He is also active in several civic and philanthropic organizations, including serving on the board of the Arizona Better Business Bureau and the Men's Arts Council, a Phoenix Art Museum support organization.
