

MSIM/MASTER OF LEGAL STUDIES CONCURRENT DEGREE

The Master of Science in Information Management/Master of Legal Studies (MSIM/MLS) concurrent degree, delivered by ASU's W. P. Carey School of Business and the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law, prepares you for where business and law intersect.

Coursework

- A total of 48 hours are required for completion of the Evening MSIM/MLS dual degree
- Classes for the MSIM are scheduled in the evenings and the MLS classes are scheduled during the day
- During the summer and fall semesters, you take only business classes
- During the spring semester, you will take business classes plus two law courses
- After the second semester, you will be enrolled exclusively in law courses

How to Apply

- You must complete application requirements for both programs. You should select the concurrent degree when applying. This dual degree option is only available for the Evening MSIM program.
- Although the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law and the W. P. Carey School of Business will make independent admissions decisions, each application will invite you to indicate that you have applied, or have been admitted, to the other program.
- Official transcripts and letters of recommendation must be sent to ASU's Office of Graduate Education. Each program may have different requirements regarding supplemental documents.

Each program maintains separate deadlines. You must be admitted to both programs and each school's office of admissions will render independent decisions.
