Notes: NR = Not Ranked. (T) = Tie. ¹Does not offer a PhD in accounting. ²Does not offer a master's degree in accounting. Some schools listed may offer variations to traditional bachelor's degrees in accounting, such as concentrations and integrated degrees. All schools are main campus unless otherwise indicated. Source: PAR research based on U.S. accounting professors' rankings of accounting programs at U.S. colleges and universities. Survey was conducted during Spring 2019.

Public Accounting Report's Annual Professors Survey is open to professors of accounting at U.S. colleges and universities that offer at least one accounting degree. Accounting departments are encouraged to keep their faculty lists current with PAR for survey distribution. List updates are accepted between Feb. 1 and Feb. 15 annually. Eligible accounting departments should submit list updates in Excel format with one column for name, one column for professional title, and one column for email address to Julie.Lindy@wolterskluwer.com during the annual list acceptance period. All names on submitted faculty lists are independently verified for eligibility.
