

Robert Donat

Founder and CEO

GPS Insight

Robert Donat graduated with a B.S. in Finance from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1991. After serving in the U.S. Army and IL National Guard as an Artillery Officer, he then received two Masters of Science degrees in Computer Science and Finance from DePaul University in Chicago. After working in technology and Finance for companies to include Citadel Investment Group, Ritchie Capital Management, and Stafford Trading in Chicago, he moved to Scottsdale, AZ. In 2004, Robert began GPS Insight, which is now a 130 person technology company which provides GPS vehicle tracking services to customers to provide insight into operations, dispatch, and risk management. Robert has 3 grade and high-school aged kids and is an avid pilot.